

WE have the honor to transmit you the first general Account of the Receipts and Disbursements of the Polish Association of Education, founded in Paris, the 29th December, 1832.

We flatter ourselves, that the efforts of the Society will meet your approbation. If they have been productive of any utility,—if various young Polish refugees have been supplied with the means of instruction, whereby they may hereafter become useful to themselves and to their country, we are persuaded that you will be pleased to contribute towards the continuance of our exertions, either by a donation, or by recommending the Society to the notice of your friends. We appeal to you, in behalf of a cause rendered sacred by misfortune.

Prince Czartoryski,

President of the Society.

*No. 21, rue d'Angoulême St. Honoré,
Paris, 2d Feb. 1834.*

Subscriptions and Donations may be sent to General Kniaziewicz, No. 3, place de la Madeleine, or to General Pac, No. 26, rue Godot de Mauroy, Paris; and to Prince Czartoryski, through the hands of Messrs. Coutts and Co, or Messrs. Jones, Lloyd, and Co., London.

38064/I,3

We have the honor to transmit you the first general Account of the Receipts and Disbursements of the Polish Association of Education, founded in Paris, the 26th December, 1832.

We trust ourselves, that the efforts of the Society will meet your approbation. If they have been productive of any utility,--if various young Polish refugees have been supplied with the means of instruction, whereby they may hereafter become useful to themselves and to their country, we are persuaded that you will be pleased to contribute towards the continuance of our exertions, either by a donation, or by recommending the Society to the notice of your friends. It is an appeal to you, in behalf of a cause rendered sacred by misfortune.

Prince Czartoryski
President of the Society.

Paris, the 2nd September 1834.
No. 11, rue de Valenciennes St. Honoré.

Subscriptions and Donations may be sent to General Kuniewicz, No. 2, place de la Madeleine, or to General Pas, No. 26, rue de la Harpe, Paris; and to Prince Czartoryski, through the hands of Messrs. Coutts and Co., or Messrs. James Lloyd and Co., London.

